

PERFORM DOT PHYSICAL EXAMS

Get Paid Twice as Much
While Working Half as Hard

LEARN MORE

You recently showed interest in our sponsored content in Dynamic Chiropractic, discussing how a chiropractor can “Get Paid Twice as Much While Working Half as Hard” by performing DOT physical exams. Chiropractors in all states except New York, Michigan, and Washington can perform these exams and are charging on average $80 for a service that requires minimal effort and time.

This is no gimmick! There is no other opportunity that offers the same amount of practice expansion and increased revenue with such a minor investment.

Become a Certified Medical Examiner!

To perform DOT physicals, you must first become a Certified Medical Examiner (CME) which requires completion of proper training, followed by the NRCME Certification test.

TeamCME provides the most comprehensive online training available, created by Dr. Michael Megehee, NRCME Champion and FMCSA Medical Examiner Education WIPT. Included is a 200+ question practice test designed to supplement your knowledge.

We encourage you to learn more about becoming a CME and the amazing benefits we provide to our members by going to www.teamcme.com
